Global Markets Summary

August 2017

Asset Class Returns

Fixed Income

- Fixed income markets globally were positive for the month with gains being evenly distributed. High yield was the only laggard as energy credits were affected by Hurricane Harvey.
- Year-to-date, international markets continued to outpace domestic. U.S. TIPS had a noteworthy month as inflation expectations held steady.
- The 10-year U.S. Treasury yield fell 18 bps during the month to end at 2.12%.

Equities

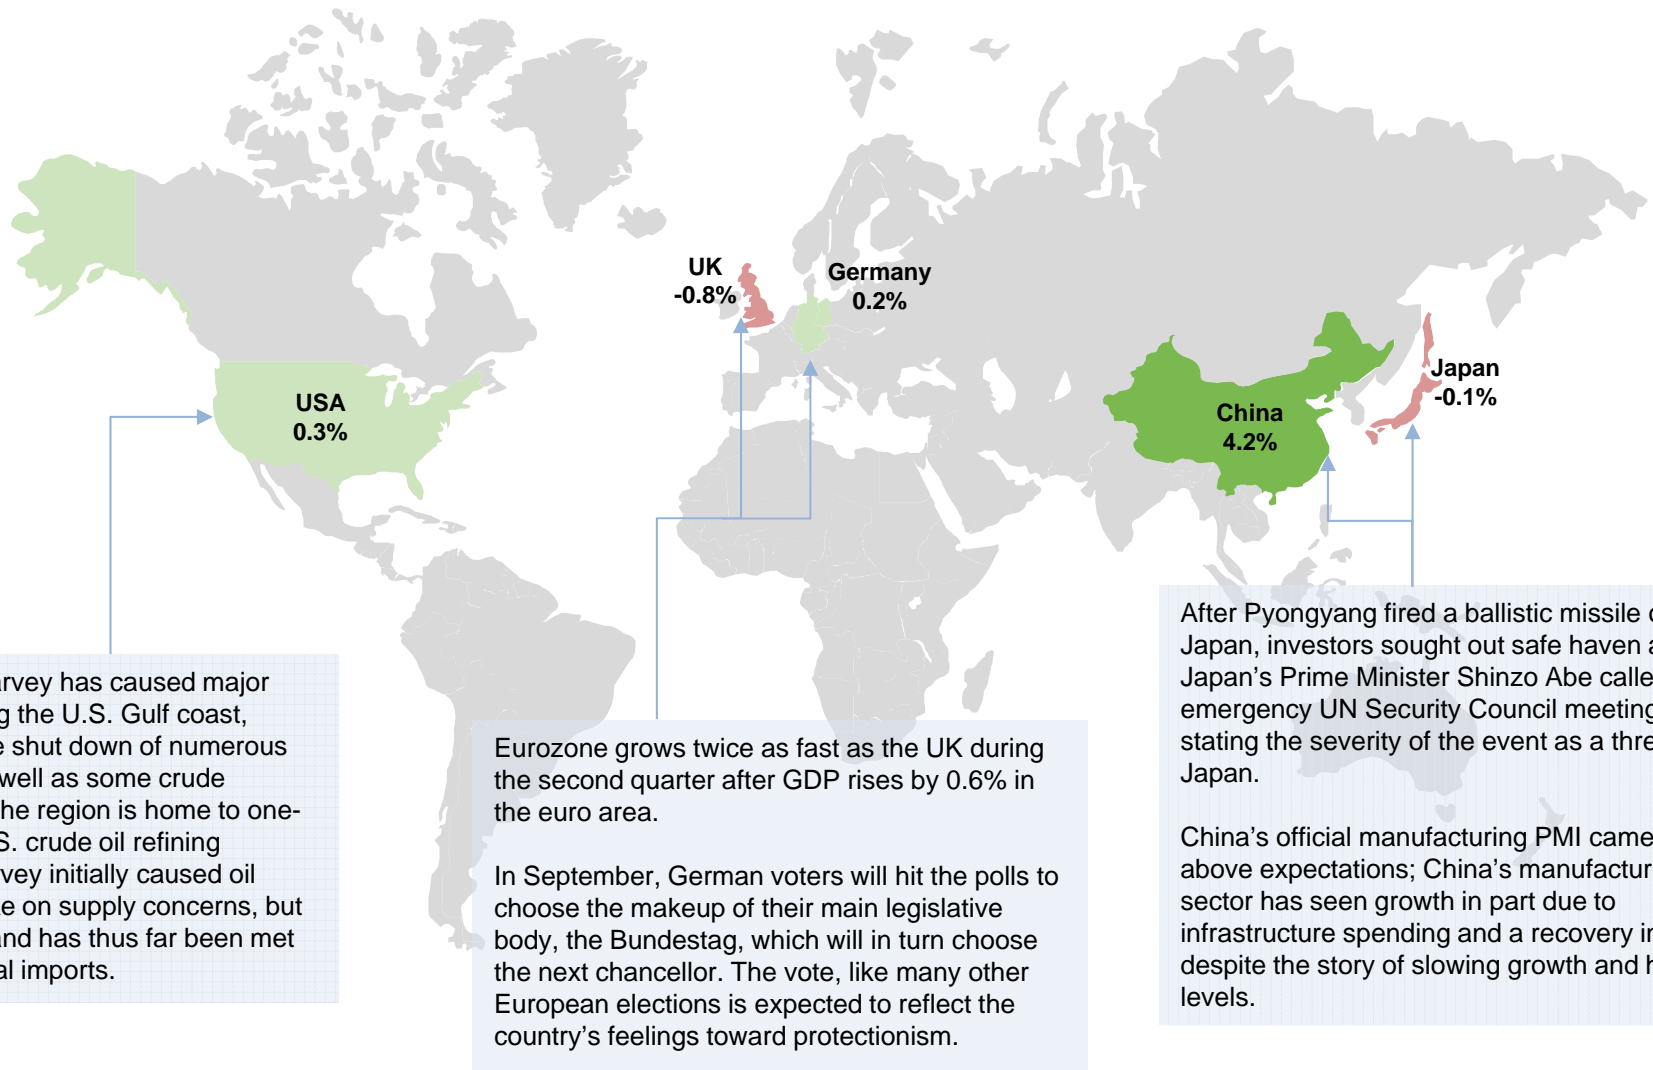

- U.S. large cap equities broadly outperformed their mid and small cap counterparts. Growth equities fared better than value across all market caps.
- International equities, both developed and emerging, saw strong performance. Emerging markets are up over 28% year to date in 2017.
- Domestically, oil and gas were a drag on returns while technology and healthcare saw the biggest increases.

Real Assets

- Hurricane Harvey's disruption in the Gulf of Mexico negatively impacted MLP performance. The group saw a noticeable pullback as a result of refineries temporarily suspending operations.
- International and Domestic REITs were both flat during an uneventful month.
- Commodities ended marginally higher as refinery suspensions led to a mild supply shock in natural gas and unleaded gasoline. Metals were also positive while agriculture fell.
